Dr. Jim Schibsted

We have been blessed in so many ways this past year at the First Congressional Church of Anaheim. It was so good to see people get baptized in a pool at Beverly Aye's home. Hearing people share how they've come to faith was inspiring. People have committed their lives to Jesus Christ. In 2018, as a church family as we said "good bye" to Marylyn Jennings, Jack Walsh, Javier Tovar and Richard Sham. Hundreds of people came to these memorial services and it was good to see our church exhibit hospitality, God's love and compassion.

Meaningful small groups gathered as we studied "Detours on the life of Joseph" by Tony Evans. Lunches at Denny's following worship also provided wonderful times of fellowship.

David Hill did a fine job as Moderator of the Cal West Association. It was an important time as our churches hosted the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches Annual Meeting in San Diego. The meeting was very well received by people representing churches from across the country. I'm so thankful for the many volunteers from our church who helped make this meeting a wonderful success.

A Note from Javier Tovar's Family:

The "Thank You" we have in mind is not only for today, but for all the yesterdays that were warmed by your caring and made brighter by your help, especially to Javier. So, as you read this "Thank You," please know that it's warm and sincere, and it comes to you from the bottom of our hearts. Thank you for your thoughtfulness and prayers for Javier Tovar's Memorial. God bless you and your congregation.

From Lupe and Rosalina Tovar,
Javier's Sisters

We said goodbye to two beloved men this month: Javier Tovar and Richard Sham. We celebrate that you are at home with God, and we miss you so much.

A Note from Richard Sham's Family:

Dear Friends of First Congregational Church of Anaheim,
We want to take an opportunity to thank all of you for the amazing support and kindness that you showed our family. Your attendance at our brother Rich's memorial service on Friday, January 18th, meant the world to us and was very appreciated. It was so comforting to hear the wonderful stories that you shared with all of us. It's good to know that Rich's memory will be kept alive because of the friends he made and the things he shared with the congregation.
If we are lucky enough, the family we have and the family we find become one and the same. We feel very lucky! You have touched our hearts with your loving actions, smiles and prayers. We are forever grateful, our sincere thanks to all of you.

With affection,

Zachary Sham and Family, The Pat Hooper Family
Pat, Roberta, Todd, Cheryl, Gina and Brian

The 8' wall along State College Boulevard coupled with the planting of all those trees became a reality. The beauty of our church campus was enhanced by paving the parking lot, building three sheds, installing new lighting, and upgrading the kitchen and bathrooms.

This next year we plan on refurbishing the church sanctuary and library. I believe one of the reasons our JOG meetings have grown is due to the volunteers who started cooking and showing hospitality. We've been blessed with inspirational speakers and excellent meals. Cheryl Cook and the rest of the church council have encouraged us to dream and take risks. It's so good to work together to implement our dreams and goals. We've also been blessed to have Pastor Emily at our church. Her pastoral and organizational skills contribute to the smooth running of our church.

Finally I hope the Samoan Congregational Church from San Diego will perform the story of the gospel coming to Samoa this year. Their performance was well received at the annual meeting this past summer. This year is the Griffith House's 100 year anniversary. I hope we can dream of ways to celebrate this important milestone. Though 2018 was a lot of work at our church, it was also a lot of fun. Let us not forget God's blessings.

Gratefully,

Pastor Jim
